B. Executive Director's Report

1. On Tuesday, October 1, the Customs House Museum held its first Marksman Challenge sporting clays fundraiser event sponsored by Travis Electrical Service at Cross Creek Clays. Forty-four shooters participated and we enjoyed perfect weather, great fellowship, food, and prizes. Some excellent shooters showed their skills with winners in several categories. First Place overall Team Champion with a score of 354 was the team captained by Joe Calabrace that also included Randy Hunt, Scott Buchanan, and Chris Smith. Individual Champion was Brian Harris who scored 97 of 100. The Long Bird Champion was 14-year-old David Wix who shot 10 of 10. The Customs House Museum is grateful to all who participated and especially to our sponsors, our organizing committee and Museum staff. We will soon have the winning trophy on display here at the Museum. This first-year event made a net profit of $12,754 after expenses.
